State Treasurer Burdened By Heavy Increase Of Work

Although the principal reason for the adoption of the proposed constitutional amendment, authorizing the legislature to fix the salary and office expenses of the state treasurer, is to open the way for a state department of banking, for the protection of Georgia's bank deposits, there is another and very important reason for the ratification of this amendment in the coming November election.

The state treasurer is working upon the same salary and office expenses as he was forty-one years ago when the present constitution was adopted in 1877, although he now has more than ten times the amount of work he then had to do.

Forty-one years ago Georgia's income from all sources amounted to only a few hundred thousand—less than a million dollars. Today the state treasurer must handle—receive and pay out—between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000. And he is responsible to the people for every dollar of it.

Because of old constitution stands in the way, the legislature could help him only by giving him the additional work, putting upon him the examination of Georgia's state banks. This didn't look like such a big task

PEOPLE WILL NOT INJURE HEALTH BY EATING CORN, RYE AND OATS INSTEAD OF WHEAT

Dr. Andrew M. Soule, College of Agriculture

Our bodies are rather complicated machines and require quite a variety of foods in order to keep them working most efficiently. There is, of course, a constant attrition going on in the body, waste material being produced and eliminated, and hence there must be an intake of certain essential elements in order to keep the machine in thorough repair and capable of doing efficient work. To this end, three classes of food are necessary to the proper nutrition of the human body. The first of these is the class of food which builds muscles and bone and so keeps the body together. In addition, there is a great class of food taken into the body which is chiefly useful for the production of energy. It provides the surplus of power which enables us to walk, to think and to work, and is represented by what is known as the fats and carbohydrates.

There has been a tendency in our country to consume more foods of the muscle and tissue-building character in proportion to our needs than of any other class. Probably we have neglected the fruits and vegetables in the human dietary more than any other form of food.

We are also asked to conserve wheat as completely as possible. Wheat is valuable for the protein it provides, but, after all, it is largely a carrier of carbohydrates, especially when used as white flour as is the common practice in this country. The question of the elimination of wheat from the dietary, therefore, brings up the problem as to whether this can be done cheaply and satisfactorily.

In order to determine the relative value of different kinds of food it is necessary to develop a measure of energy. To this end the term calories is used. This represents the amount of heat required to raise the temperature of a liter of water one degree. Applied to the human body, the calories are measured in terms of the amount of heat which will yield per ounce of food. For instance, wheat flour yields 161 calories of protein, 5.1 calories of fat, and 83.3 calories of carbohydrates. Corn meal yields 161 calories of protein, 5.1 calories of fat, and 83.3 calories of carbohydrates. Oat meal yields 161 calories of protein, 5.1 calories of fat, and 83.3 calories of carbohydrates. These figures show that corn meal and oat meal are practically equal in value to wheat flour. In fact, corn meal and oat meal are actually better than wheat flour, for they contain more protein and fat, and a little less carbohydrate than wheat flour.

To Give Better Protection To Georgia's Bank Deposits

Georgians are offered a method of throwing stronger safeguards and better protection around their bank deposits, than ever before in the history of the state, through one of the proposed constitutional amendments to be voted upon by the people in the coming November election.

While the title of this amendment does not indicate the purpose of it, its ultimate object is to provide, through legislative act, a separate and distinct state department of banking which shall make thorough and frequent examination of the more than 100 state banks in Georgia, and to prevent them from reaching the danger point.

The entire expense of this state banking department is to be met by the banks themselves, through pro rata contributions, so it involves no additional burden upon the state.

The title of this important constitutional amendment is an "Amendment to Paragraph 2, Section 2, Article 8, of the Constitution, fixing the State Treasurer's salary and the clerical expenses of his office."

The legal necessity for this form arises from the fact that the state

DR. FLOYD ASSIGNED TO SERVE AT CAMP UPTON

Dr. F. F. Floyd, who was commissioned some weeks ago as captain in the medical branch of the army, and has been stationed at Spartanburg, S. C., for the past month, is at home for a furlough of a few days. Dr. Mooney has been ill with the flu while treating the disease at the Spartanburg camp, but is now entirely recovered.

Dr. Floyd and Dr. A. J. Mooney, who went into the service a month or more ago, have been jointly operating the local sanitarium. It was feared at one time that their absence would necessitate the closing of the sanitarium, but arrangements have been made with other physicians to keep it open. This will be pleasing news to the public, inasmuch as it has come to be recognized as a necessity.

TEXAS CATTLEMAN MAY SELL PLANT ANNOUNCED, PLANS, IF DEVELOPED, WILL MEAN MUCH TO BULLOCH FARMERS.

The Bulloch packing plant may be sold to interests who are able to carry it forward on a scale which means much to the farmers of Bulloch county, if plans which now exist are matured.

The directors have negotiated a contract of sale to E. J. Jersig, of San Antonio, Tex., conditioned upon his compliance with certain conditions and the ratification of the holders of stock in the plant after he has met the terms.

The consideration is $150,000. None of this amount has been paid, but the contract calls for a payment within the present week. After this payment is made, the stockholders will be called together. If the payment is not made, the deal will be called off.

Mr. Jersig was a visitor to Statesboro all last week, and the contract between him and the directors of the plant was formally signed on Tuesday. He left the next day to look after matters in connection with the deal.

Mr. Jersig is understood to be extensively interested in cattle raising in Texas and Oklahoma. It is understood that he and his associates have been making a study of the possibilities of the plant for some time, and that they are now ready to put it into operation. The plant is situated on a tract of land which is well watered and is well adapted for the raising of cattle. It is also well adapted for the raising of sheep and horses. The plant is well equipped with all the necessary machinery and tools for the raising of these animals. It is also well equipped with all the necessary machinery and tools for the processing of these animals. The plant is well equipped with all the necessary machinery and tools for the processing of these animals. It is also well equipped with all the necessary machinery and tools for the processing of these animals.

BOY IN TRAINING CAMP HAS PLEASANT DREAM OF HOME

Camp Logan, Tex., Oct. 21. Dear Mother and Father:

I will try and write you all a few lines to let you hear from me. I am getting along O. K. and hope you all well and enjoying life.

I dreamed last night of being with you all, and my gee! how I did enjoy it, although when I woke I found it was all false. Me, I want you and papa to take life easy and not work so hard, for I have an idea of coming back home some time, and I want to find you all there.

I think we are going to move some time in about two or three weeks. I don't know where we will go yet, I will let you know when I find out.

I got a letter from Homer last night and was glad to hear that he is still at Camp Gordon.

I often think of you all and that patch of cane. I just bet it is fine! I haven't seen any cane since we got here.

I heard it was real dry weather around there. It has been raining a right smart out here in the past three weeks, and it is real warm now.

I will send you my picture some time this week. I think I will go to town tomorrow night and get them. What is papa getting for his cotton, or hasn't he sold any of it yet? I hope he will have good luck in getting it all gathered.

Tell Dacie I got her card and I thank her and all the rest for what they did for Homer and me.

Listen, mama, I went out to the Y. M. C. A. last night to preaching. I sure did enjoy it. We sang some old time songs which made me think of you all at preaching. I don't want you to think that I am a mean boy because I am in the army, I am trying to live a clean life in this man's army, and don't you worry any more than you can help about your boys, for I am going to look out for No. 1, and I am getting plenty of something good to eat and a good bed to sleep on; but they are giving us too much drill now. We are drilling eight hours a day, and that is too much for us.

Well, mama, it is late and I have no news to write. I will close 'hoping to hear from you real soon. I am as ever, your son,

DOCK E. BENNETT,
Co. F, 43rd Inf., Camp Logan, Tex.

CHURCHES BACKING UNITED WAR WORK

PROTESTANT MINISTERS MEET IN ATLANTA AND PLEDGE HEARTY SUPPORT.

Atlanta, October 29.—The Protestant churches of the southeastern states placed themselves solidly behind the United War Work Campaign at a meeting of fifty leading ministers from southeastern cities held in Atlanta, and a comprehensive plan was worked out for the aid which these churches will render in the campaign.

At the meeting the scope and full purpose of the entire campaign were outlined to the gathered ministers by officials of the southeastern headquarters of the United War Work Campaign, and committees of ministers were named to hold conferences in the principal cities of the southeastern states with the ministers of the territory of which each city forms the center.

The committee for Georgia is composed of Dr. Richard Orme Flinn, of Atlanta, chairman; Dr. A. B. Vaughan, of LaGrange; Dr. C. W. Daniel, of Atlanta; Dr. S. A. Wasson, of LaGrange; Dr. M. Ashby Jones and Dr. C. B. Wilmer of Atlanta, and Dr. T. D. Ellis, of Macon.

The meeting was fraught with enthusiasm and determination, and after a full and frank discussion of all the problems relating to the campaign the following resolutions were adopted:

"First, in view of the decision of the President, with which all good citizens should loyally comply, and in view of his clear statement that his request implies no surrender of its integrity and independence on the part of any of the agencies involved and no compromise of their convictions or their work, and in view of the importance of providing whatever is necessary to promote the well being of our soldiers and sailors, we urge upon all our churches the most earnest support of the comfort and welfare of the army and navy. We believe our churches should take the lead in all proper efforts to make proper campaign an unqualified success.

"Second, That we rejoice in the promise of the hearty co-operation of our Protestant religious press and have learned with pleasure of the action of their representatives, taken in New York on October 17, 1918, in which they declare that we heartily approve the plans outlined, and pledge the fullest, most explicit and sustained support by continuingly urging the cause upon our several constituents.

(Signed) "C. B. Wilmer, "W. Louis Potat, "Ryland Knight, "Richard Orme Flinn, "Committee."

It's just that we may have them back again.

In quite the way they went, with youth unspoiled;

Our boys, whose lives have never known the lack

Of clean ideals. God grant they stay unsoiled!

It's just that they may look into our eyes

With eyes as clear as boyish eyes could be;

That they may know the faith that never dies,

To guide them through the lands across the sea—

It's just that they may feel the weight of prayer,

May feel God's nearness, like a glowing light,

To be a cloak about them, everywhere

Through horror's day, and terror's bitter night—

It's just that they, no matter where they roam,

May have some link connecting them to home.

Macon, Ga., Oct. 28.—Directors of the Georgia State Fair association and health authorities held a meeting this morning and decided to open the state fair on November 11 for ten days. Saturday night a meeting of the Bibb County Medical association and a committee from the fair association discussed the advisability of holding the fair on account of the influenza, and it was decided to cancel original dates.

President Julius Otto received a telegram Sunday from Martin V. Calvert, president of the State Agricultural society, asking that the fair be postponed, but to have the original dates held. Fair directors met this morning and after much discussion set November 11 as the opening date. The fair was to have opened Wednesday of this week.

SAVE FRUIT STONES, IS RED CROSS CALL

The Red Cross organizations are pushing their campaign for the conservation of fruit seeds and nut shells. The local branch of the society has taken up the work, and asks the cooperation of all patriotic citizens, both old and young.

The production of gas masks has increased 1,200 per cent since the first respirators were produced in 1917, and the gas defensive division, at its Astoria plant, now employs 1,500 people, including 600 officers and men. This division began with one man, and the increased number of employees will give some idea of the enlarged character of the work, which in turn, indicates the rapidly growing need of gas masks. In fact, the gas defensive division says that 500 tons of carbon are needed daily to meet the increased output. Previous to the campaign of conservation, now in full force to produce carbon for gas masks, this material came from 225 different sources, men being stationed in South and Central America, India and in the Philippines to arrange for the collection of raw material for producing carbon.

We now know that 200 peach stones make enough carbon for one gas mask, and that these 200 peach stones equal 7 pounds of carbon, while 300 prune stones will furnish enough carbon to make a gas mask. These stones have been considered waste products and have helped to fill our garbage plants. The call now is to save the fruit stones and nut shells, the following being the kind of stones and shells needed:

Peach stones, prune, cherry, apricot, plum, olive and date pits; hickorynuts, walnuts, butternuts and Brazil nut shells. Help protect our soldiers from deadly poison gas by collecting these waste products and seeing to it that they reach the Red Cross headquarters. Mrs. D. R. Groover, in Statesboro, will gladly give any instructions in regard to this work.

STREAM OF PLANES GOING TO FRANCE

SEN. THOMPSON, BACK FROM FRANCE, REPUDIATES ATTACKS ON U. S. AIR PROGRAM

Describing his recent visit to the western front, Senator Thompson, of Kansas, told the senate that in some quarters there is a belief that the war can be ended this year, but the general opinion abroad is that another year will be necessary to bring Germany to her knees.

America, he declared, had put "pep" in the war and started the ball rolling toward Berlin.

German morale was never lower than at the present time, he said, while the armies of the allies are convinced they are fighting a winning cause and that victory is all but within their grasp.

The United States' entrance into the war is principally responsible for this change, he added.

Not alone in manpower and in artillery do the allies predominate, but they have complete superiority in the air.

Despite the criticism in this country of the aircraft program, he said, planes are now arriving in France from this country about as rapidly as they can be taken care of.

He branded as false statements made in the senate a short time ago that a plane equipped with a Liberty motor had not yet arrived in France. These machines since September 3, have been arriving at the rate of five or six a day.

SEN. SMITH ANSWERS REPUBLICAN CRITICS

DENIES THEIR CHARGES THAT SOUTHERN FARMERS ARE BEING SHOWN UNDUDE FAVORS.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Answering Republican criticism of the administration, Senator Hoke Smith delivered a comprehensive speech on the cotton situation in the senate late Monday afternoon.

The Georgia senator answered specifically that portion of the Lodge-Smoot statement which declared that the Democratic administration had fixed the price of wheat but "had left cotton untouched."

Senator Smith aptly demonstrated that the government had not fixed a price on wheat, but had guaranteed a minimum price for that grain, vitally needed by the allied armies.

He also showed that the several statements of the war industries board regarding the "stabilization" of cotton prices, and the appointment of committees on distribution and investigation of the cotton situation, had caused a great drop in prices, which loss was sustained by the southern cotton farmer.

This, Senator Smith said, did not bear out Republican charges that cotton had been "untouched" by the government.

"If the war industries board and their committees succeed in maintaining the present depression in the price of cotton," said Senator Smith, "they will make a present of $235,000,000 to the foreign cotton manufacturers, but they will take the present from our own farmers."

The Georgia senator referred to the great increase in the cost of producing the cotton crop, an increase out of proportion to that involved in the production of other crops, and touching labor, fertilizers and farm implements.

"The best information I can get from Georgia," said Senator Smith, "is that the crop of this year cost, wherever labor was employed, for wages, from 30 to 37½ per pound. Many well-informed men in the cotton section insist the average cost of this crop has been between 35 and 40 cents."

"The labor to produce wheat was fairly well paid before the war, and the demand for higher-priced labor did not increase the cost of labor on the wheat farm as it did on the cotton farm. The wheat crop was a normal crop; the cotton crop was four million bales less than the planted acreage should have produced.

"Goods manufactured from cotton are selling at an average of three times more than the prices before the war."

"One-half of our cotton is shipped abroad and handled by foreign manufacturers. That manufactured here is consumed about one-half by mills in states where cotton is grown and the other half by mills elsewhere in this country. To force down the price of lint cotton without forcing down the price of the products manufactured from the lint cotton would be simply to make a gift of the amount taken from the selling price, divided among the manufacturers here and in foreign countries. Our Republican friends might have suggested price-fixing on the manufactured product, if price-fixing were legal and resorted to for the benefit of the people, it is necessary that it be attached to the manufactured cotton product.

More price-fixing on lint cotton would not help the great consuming public, Senator Smith demonstrated that while manufactured cotton goods are bringing three times the pre-war prices, lint cotton is not selling for three times its price before the war.

The manufacturer, he estimated, can make money on cotton goods should he pay 40 cents per pound under the present conditions.

"The government has guaranteed the wheat price," continued Senator Smith. "It has not undertaken to fix a price on corn, the greatest agricultural product of this country; it has not undertaken to fix a price on hay, one of the chief products. The Republican manifesto should not have made a sectional attack upon the cotton grower."

Among the many places which kept close watch on the operation of "daylight saving" very definite facts were obtained from one community of about 1,000,000 population. It was shown that in this one district the saving of coal was 17½ tons per 1,000 population over the period of seven months. These figures were checked against records obtained from other places in widely separated districts having the same relative conditions, and from the mass of facts

Detroit, Mich. "I got into a weak, run-down condition, no appetite, tired all the time and headaches—but had to keep around and do my housework. I read about Vinol and tried it—within two weeks I commenced to improve, and now have a splendid appetite and feel stronger and better in every way."—Mrs. John F. Watson.

For all run-down, nervous, anemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children, there is no remedy like Vinol.

—Lana, Texas. "I keep house and I was weak, run-down and nervous, back ached a good deal of the time, so it was hard to take care of my chickens and do my work. Vinol has restored my strength, and my nervousness has gone, so I can do my work as well as ever. Every run-down woman should take Vinol."—Mrs. Emma Bidd.

TO AID EDUCATION.

Among the constitutional amendments to be voted upon by the voters of Georgia next Tuesday is that providing for the exemption of church schools from taxation.

The measure has been adopted by the legislature by the required two-thirds majority, and ought to be endorsed by the people, inasmuch as it is entirely directed to the end of educational benefit.

The people of Georgia are taxed to maintain a number of state colleges, and these are worth every dollar they cost. They are so overcrowded that it is impossible for half those who would get their benefits to do so.

Let any young woman try the Georgia Normal and Industrial College at Milledgeville, and she will find how nearly impossible it is to get admission. The same is true with regard to the schools for boys.

And every taxpayer in the state is paying to keep up these schools, while they are denied their benefits for want of room.

The church schools of Georgia are taking up the work which the secular schools are unable to do for want of room. Yet the church schools are not only run without expense to the taxpayers, but they are actually taxed upon the property which may be donated to their maintenance by liberal-hearted friends as endowments.

Instead of making it easy to serve those whom the state is not able to serve, it is made harder by reason of this taxation. And it is not fair. The church schools are taking the burden off the state, and yet the state makes them pay for doing it.

There has been more or less prejudice against this proposed exemption because of the fear that it would relieve the Catholic and colored schools from taxation. Nigger Catholic! And the people are expected to have a fit at the words.

The facts do not bear out this fear. The endowments held for the Catholic and negro schools are held outside of Georgia and are therefore not now reached by taxation. Nigger Catholic! And the people are expected to have a fit at the words.

Vote to exempt college endowments.

THEY WROTE A BOOK.

Nothing more unfortunate for the republican party could have happened than that its leaders were engaged in writing twenty years ago, at a time when the war was unsettled between the United States and Spain, and while the republicans were in power.

The trend of their written argument then was that, the administration engaged in the conduct of the war, the voters should give endorsement to the conduct of the war by the election of a republican congress. To do otherwise would be taken as a rebuke to the administration by the European powers, and would humiliate the administration.

This was probably good argument then. Anyway, it seems to be good argument now, and President Wilson has been making the same point in his appeal to the voters for the coming election next Tuesday.

VOTE FOR TREUTLEN COUNTY
The voters of Georgia cannot do a better service to themselves than to support the various new county propositions in next Tuesday's election. New counties build up the state, and are a means of improvement generally. Treutlen county is an especially worthy proposition, and it is people of the county from which it is being formed are overwhelmingly in favor of its creation. Vote for the creation of Treutlen county.

CARD OF APPRECIATION.

Whereas, our beloved pastor, Elder W. H. Crouse, has seen fit to resign the pastorate of our church and to enter the Y. M. C. A. work of the United States army.

Be it therefore resolved by the Primitive Baptist church of Statesboro, Ga., That during the six years' pastorate Brother Crouse has graciously endeavored himself to the entire membership of our church in Statesboro by his worthy counsel and Godly life among us, and has made a distinct impression upon the whole community, and that the circle of his influence has not been limited to this community alone, but has extended throughout the state and wherever he was known.

2. That it is with genuine regret that we have accepted his resignation and that we are mindful of the fact that his departure will mean a distinct loss to the church, and not alone to our church, but to all the churches, and to every worthy interest and enterprise in the community, because he was always liberal and tolerant in his relations with other churches and ever ready to take the lead and to do his full share in every worthy cause.

3. That we wish him the highest measure of success in his newly chosen field, and commend the spirit of patriotism which has led him to enter this new work, and voice the belief that his Christian example and ministry, his kindly spirit of sympathy, and his wide experience in leadership will give him quick access to the confidence and affection of the boys in khaki with whom he may be assigned to labor, and that he will find there a wide field of usefulness and influence.

LIBERTY LOAN REACHES ALMOST $6,500,000,000

INCOMPLETE OFFICIAL FIGURES INDICATE AN OVER-SUBSCRIPTION FROM EVERY DISTRICT.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Indications here today were that the total to the fourth Liberty Loan would reach $6,500,000,000.

Having their calculations on reports from banks throughout the country, together with official figures from most states, officials said an over-subscription to the great loan of $600,000,000 probably had been made to date. Every federal reserve district has its quota "in sight" on official figures while hundreds of thousands of dollars continue to pour in.

To exceed an over-subscription of $500,000,000, there must be an average over-subscription in each of the twelve reserve districts of $45,000,000. Few of the districts will not have a larger figure than that, it was asserted. Chicago, it was believed, will have $100,000,000 over her quota and New York is expected to show at least $90,000,000 over. The Kansas City district, while well over its quota, probably will fall as low as any. An over-subscription there of at least $30,000,000 was predicted.

GROSS PROFITEERING IN ORANGE TRADE ALLEGED

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 29.—State Food Administrator Braxton Beach, in a warning to the orange trade of Florida today, declared that gross profiteering in the fruit has been practiced recently. The food administration demands that the trade immediately place the fruit on sale at a price which will insure only a fair profit, and unless such a demand is met immediately, steps will be taken accordingly by the enforcement division of the administration. It is alleged that oranges have been sold as high as 10 cents apiece, which price is considered exceedingly exorbitant. There is no reason why the fanciest oranges of the largest size should be sold by the retailer to the consumer at a price in excess of 5 cents," warns Mr. Beach. He alleges that jobbers are charging the retailers as much as $8 per box, when the maximum price for the choicest stock should be no more than $5.

HUNS ARE ORDERED TO CHECK AMERICANS

SOLDIERS WARNED THAT AN ARMISTICE HAS NOT BEEN GRANTED BY ALLIES.

With the American Armies in France, Oct. 28.—The fight to check the Americans on the Meuse, it is now evident, is Germany's supreme political, as well as military effort. Orders to prevent the Americans from crossing the river southeast of Brioules at all costs, and the bitter counter attack directed against our positions on the east bank are indicative of the importance the enemy attaches to the present operations.

Germany is making every effort to keep her political front as strong as possible by saving her military face. Loss of the important heights east of the Meuse would be the most severe blow the Boche could suffer. They constitute the Germans' strongest artillery positions in this region and would give the Americans control of the terrain for several miles to the northward.

American pressure against the new German defense line continues to threaten the enemy's communications along the entire twenty-five-mile front on both sides of the Meuse. A hundred and fifty American bombing and battle planes shot enemy trenches and roads yesterday and dropped five tons of bombs on concentration areas.

The German "Red bellied circus" opposed the Americans in violent aerial battle. Lieutenant Rickenbacker brought down his twenty-first victim, forcing him down inside the American lines, where the doughboys captured the pilot.

American squads made twelve flights during the bombing raids. Rickenbacker engaged in three combats. The day was sunny and the air was constantly filled with American aviators.

MUST HAVE MORE FOOD, HOOVER PLEA

Washington, Oct. 27.—In a message outlining the 1918-1919 programme for food conservation, which was read in every church throughout the country today, Herbert Hoover appealed to the idealism and self-sacrifice of the American people for greater conservation, not alone on a few specific commodities, but on all staple products. In order that the health and strength of our fighting forces, as well as those of the allies may be maintained to bring the war to a successful conclusion in 1919, "we must aim at the strictest economy on our tables and the intelligent adjustment of our menus. This is to save not only food itself, but transportation and labor."

Referring to the Inter-Allied Food Council held last summer, Mr. Hoover said that the needs of the allies were computed and the resources from which they could be met were reckoned. Corrected, as the returns from the harvest were ascertained and the shipping facilities were developed, the schedules show that America must greatly increase her exports of food supplies during the coming year. VOTERS OF BULLOCH COUNTY URGED TO VOTE

SAFETY OF DEMOCRATIC PARTY DEPENDS ON EACH MAN DOING HIS DUTY.

To the Voters of Bulloch County: The state-wide regular election will be held next Tuesday, November 5th. We are informed that two tickets will be placed in the hands of the voters, the Democratic ticket and the Republican ticket, and that they will be similar in every respect except as to one or two of the candidates. The Bulloch county voters are not only urged to go to the polls and vote, but are warned to examine the tickets furnished.

We are agreed that the safety of the state depends to a large extent upon the white primary system now in operation. For one who voted in that primary to refuse to abide by its decision or to repudiate any of its nominees is not only to endanger the primary system, but violates the basic principles of Democracy of majority rule.

The voters of Bulloch county are urged to go to the regular election, to vote for the Democratic ticket, and to keep Bulloch county loyal to its promises and true to its practice of majority rule.

STATESBORO BOY ASSIGNED TO PLACE AT WEST POINT

Beverly Moore, son of W. B. Moore, of the Savannah & Statesboro railway office force, left this morning for New York where he has been assigned as a student in the military branch of West Point college.

The assignment was received from Congressman Overstreet, and is a compliment to the young man and a pleasure to his friends. Young Moore has been at the State University in Athens since the beginning of school in the fall. Before that he spent one term at Dahlgren and was at a military training school in the north during the summer.

The first thing your soldier will ask for when the stretcher-bearer picks him up in No Man's Land is a cigarette. How much would you give to see that he gets so small a favor as that? Give it to the United War Work Fund today.

MOTHER DREADED WATER; KEPT SON FROM NAVY

WAS DROWNED AT SEA AFTER CARD HAD ANNOUNCED HIS ARRIVAL OVERSEAS.

In the drowning of young Brooks Beasley, with two other Bulloch lads, on the other side of the Atlantic on the sixth of the present month, there has developed a pathetic phase which is peculiarly touching.

Brooks Beasley was one of the young men who left Bulloch in a recent draft. He had previously wished to enlist in the navy, but his mother was particularly averse to the dangers of water, and she dissuaded him from it.

As in the case of the two other boys, Carswell Deal and John M. Sheffield, the safe arrival of the boys overseas had been announced by the receipt of cards which they had previously addressed to be mailed when their ship arrived safely. This was done upon the arrival of the ship at a British port. The next day the ship was moving across to another port when she collided with another vessel and over three hundred were lost.

The father of young Sheffield, one of the other boys lost, at the same time, received a card from his son last week, and notice of his safe arrival was published in the paper.

The other young man, Carswell Deal, was a son of Mr. Allison Deal, at Arzola. His parents, too, had been notified of his safe arrival.

The death of these young men is particularly and under the circumstances.

THEATER TO RE-OPEN.

The Amuse Theater will re-open Monday after three weeks' vacation on account of the flu. Will start with Pauline Frederick and La-Tosca, and will have our regular high-class service throughout the week. We invite our friends to favor us with their presence.

HOTEL TO OPEN AGAIN.

The Rountree hotel will be re-opened Monday for business, after having been closed for several months. Mrs. Nelson, of Dublin, has leased the hotel from Mayor Rountree, and will arrive tomorrow to assume charge. The place has been operated as a rooming house since the dining room was closed in the spring.

STATESBORO'S NEW SCHOOL.

The government needs thousands of clerks and stenographers and is urging, consequently, to make every effort to secure them. We have decided to open a school in Statesboro, thereby giving every young man and woman an opportunity to get this training at home in the shortest possible time and at very small expense. Teachers of national reputation will come to Statesboro to teach the various subjects. For the benefit of any who are employed during the day, we will conduct a night school. Make your arrangements now to enter on the opening day. High salaries positions to every graduate. This is your opportunity to get a business education and to help your country.—adv.

RE-OPENING OF CITY SCHOOLS.

The city schools of Statesboro will resume work on Monday, Nov. 4th, at eight o'clock. We hope that the epidemic of influenza has passed, and feel that the schools may safely resume work if proper precautions are exercised by both patrons and school authorities.

Respectfully,
R. M. MONTS, Supt.

Somebody's Dollars Will Do It-- I WONDER IF IT WILL BE YOURS?

(BY BRUCE BARTON)

I will tell you what will happen some night this winter in France. Some night when it is cold and dark. There will be a rustling through the front line trench, where our boys stand guard. And a heavy ladened Secretary will make his way along. In his hands will be great steaming pots: in his pockets chocolate and cigarettes.

From one man to another he will go, passing a cup full of hot coffee to hands that tremble with the cold; bringing the comfort of a bit of sweet and a smoke.

Men will hail him cheerily, slapping him on the back; and when he has gone things will be a little easier in that trench because he has passed that way.

How much will it cost to make that trip, do you suppose? Counting the pittance that the Secretary is paid, and the cost of the chocolate and the cigarettes and all?

Five Dollars? Twenty-five Dollars? I do not know.

But whether it is five dollars or twenty-five, I'd like to think that it is MY five or twenty-five—wouldn't you? That some night when it's cold and lonesome, MY money and YOURS might send a Secretary out along that front line trench. Let's make up our minds the WE are going to pay for a score of those trips. A score of the nights this winter shall be OUR nights —nights when the boys greet joyously the chocolate and cigarettes that our money provided; and are happier because OUR representative has passed.

LETTERS FROM THE BOYS:

CAMP HANCOCK, OCT. 23, 1918.

MR. WALTER McDOUGALD,

Statesboro, Ga.,

Dear Walter:

I want to tell you that the soldiers certainly appreciate your work for the Y.M.C.A. If it were not for the Y.M.C.A. I don't know what we would do in the camp. Until a man has lived in one of the great army camps he doesn't have any idea what the "Y" means. It furnishes us with paper, envelopes, ink, a place to write, books to read, lectures and entertainments by some of the best speakers and entertainers in the country, a canteen where we can buy things we need at cost, and the thousands and one home comforts that we cannot get anywhere except at home and at the "Y". For instance every Saturday afternoon the ladies come out from town and patch and mend our clothes for us in the "Y" building.

The Secretaries are kind, courteous, christian gentlemen, who do all in their power to make the life of the soldier boy happier and more home like. I want you to take this message to all Bulloch county people: If they want to do something for we boys who are fighting for them, the best thing they can do is to support the Y. M. C. A., for it not only ministers to us here in the home land, but reaches to the last trench and right into the front line.

With best wishes always, I am,

Your friend,

FRED FLETCHER.

In Active Service in France With the American Expeditionary Force, Oct. 30, 1918.

DEAR MR. WALTER McDOUGALD:

I received your kind letter some time ago and would have answered sooner but have not had time. Your daily papers will show you the reason why I have been busy. In regard to the Y.M.C.A. but what it is a GRAND THING. Every battalion has a Y.M.C.A. but what the battalion moves the "Y" moves also. I think if the people of Bulloch county and in all the states knew just what the "Y" means to our boys over here they sure would open up their hearts and their purses and give liberally. We get a lot of stuff through the "Y" that we could not possibly get any other way. We get lots of chocolate at the "Y" and its good, too. We also get candy, cigars and biscuits.

I will say, too, that the "Y" men over here are doing wonderful work. I met a "Y" man on the firing line the other day with a bundle under his arm. He asked where a certain company was that he was attached to. We asked him what he wanted and he said he was going to carry his men some food and candy. That's the kind of men the "Y" has over here and how much they think of us boys. Even this paper would be impossible to get if it was not for the "Y". Well tell the people I am O. K. Give them my love and keep a lot for yourself.

As ever,

PRIVATE GEORGE SPIVEY.

(George lived on Dr. Kennedy's place near Clito before going to France)

CAMP WHEELER, MACON, GA.

MR. WALTER McDOUGALD,

Dear Walter:

Answering your recent inquiry as to the benefit of the Y.M.C.A. to the soldier, I want to say that after being in service almost one year and having an opportunity to see the good work being done by the organization in both Camp Gordon and Camp Wheeler, I unreservedly commend it. Aside from the religious work which is given due emphasis, the organization does much to relieve the hardships of the men, providing such things as are needed in the way of reading rooms, letter paper, stamps etc. The Y.M.C.A. Secretaries are uniformly courteous, patient and always ready to render a kindness. The good they do cannot be overestimated.

With sincere good wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,

JESSE O. JOHNSTON.

(Note—Jesse is in France also. And we have sent the "Y" right along with him. Let's keep it there.)

LEON V. SOWELL,

In a letter to his sister Mrs. Joe Fletcher.

"The Y.M.C.A. has some kind of program every night. They have good entertainments and American pictures. It sure is a great help to us."

FRANCE, AUGUST 18, 1918.

MR. WALTER McDOUGALD,

Dear Friend:

Your letter received and I was very much pleased to hear from you, and glad to know that you remembered me—and more so to know that you were doing Y.M.C.A. work for the boys over here. We had a man who is with the Y.M.C.A. over here in my sector to give us a talk and he sure was fine. The Y.M.C.A. is always doing something for us boys. If the folks want to do anything for us tell them to do it through the "Y". Well, Walter, give my love to all the folks and tell them I am well.

Your friend,

CORP. DEDRICK PROCTOR.

Battery "E" 52 Artillery—C. A. C.—A. E. F.

FRANCE, AUGUST 21, 1918.

MR. WALTER McDOUGALD,

Dear Friend:

If I ever had any impartiality against the Y.M.C.A., the events of a fortnight past have removed the last of them and the nature of its good work can only be estimated by the expressions of the fellows who are so lucky as to be near a "Y". Hut, and therefore spend most of their time at the "Y". In the past weeks I have spent many happy evenings in the Y.M.C.A., and enjoyed some splendid entertainments by some of America's best entertainers and not least among them, the Craig Players. This particular company is doing splendid work for the entertainment of our fellows who are in the trenches, and it is a wonderful thing when you come from the day of bitter fighting to find warm homelike entertainment offered at the "Y" Hut, which like all the "Y" does for us is absolutely FREE.

You ask what the boys think of the effort of our homelike folks to provide us with the Y.M.C.A. Well, I think your efforts amount to EVERYTHING and I regret that I am unable to adequately express our appreciation, and I assure you those who help in the Y.M.C.A. work will be as effective in conquering the "HUN" as though they were actually at the front. And as for keeping the work going we certainly want that done, and if you could see the great work that is being done here you would think the amount asked is very small.

I wish you every success in the world for the task you have undertaken and knowing the patriotism of Bulloch people I am not afraid of your failing. If there is any way I can be of any help to you do not hesitate to call on me. I am always proud to hear of the best county in the grand old state and I will appreciate hearing from any of you at any time. Give my best regards to every one.

Sincerely yours,

CAMP HANCOCK, AUGUSTA, GA.

MR. WALTER McDOUGALD,

My Dear Walter:

I received your letter a few days ago and was mighty glad to hear from you. Speaking of the Y.M.C.A. I must admit that it is one of the greatest organizations serving with the Stars and Stripes and no one can speak too great for them. There is no favor too much for them to undertake for the officers and the enlisted men. Personally speaking, I have been in the Base Hospital for the past three weeks and I must say that my only friends were the secretaries of the Y.M.C.A. They made personal calls on the patients daily furnishing us with stamps, stationery and even writing letters for the uneducated or those unable to write. They kept us in smokes and made trips several times a day to the canteens and postoffice for our benefit.

Without the Y.M.C.A. we would have to walk miles to town for money orders, stamps, stationery, entertainment and hundreds of other homelike services that they furnish. I think every patriotic citizen should support the Y.M.C.A. to the limit of their ability. There is nothing greater they can do for the boys than pushing this organization to the front with their money. Please accept my personal appreciation of the work you are doing for us, and I know if possible the entire army would join me if they could have the opportunity.

With sincerest good wishes and affectionate regards to all my friends I wish you all the success of the world in this great unselfish work for us.

TOM C. DENMARK.

Note—Laughing, jolly, jovial Tom is in France now fighting for you and me. Can you fail to support his friend the "Y"?

PEACE RUMOR UNCONFIRMED; CONFERENCE RESULTS IN DOUBT

SOON TO KNOW IF END IS NEAR

DETAILS OF ARMISTICE TERMS OFFERED TO GERMANY—SHE WILL MAKE DECISION.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Marshal Foch has the terms of armistice for Germany and awaits application for them by the German military command in the field.

The government at Berlin is so informed in a note which Secretary Lansing handed to Minister Sulzer, of Switzerland, tonight, announcing that the Allies have declared their willingness to make peace on the principles enunciated by President Wilson.

In twenty-four hours it should be in the hands of the Germans; in forty-eight hours the world may know whether an immediate end of the war is at hand.

Publication of details of the armistice terms still is withheld. They may not be made known until the Germans have accepted or rejected them, as the course followed by the Allies in dealings with Bulgaria, Turkey and Austria. Only the details are in doubt, however, and the question of acceptance means subject surrender.

The statement has been authorized that the drastic conditions under which Austria passed out of the war have been followed closely, and in answer to queries for further information officials said tonight the statement of Premier Clemenceau cabled from Paris by the Associated Press told the story:

"The terms," said M. Clemenceau, "are what President Wilson himself recommended to us for the security of our troops, the maintenance of our superiority, and the disarmament of the enemy in so far as that is necessary to prevent a resumption of hostilities."

Secretary Lansing's note gives the first of what has been going on in the momentous conferences at Paris between Colonel House and the Allied Premiers. It quotes a "memorandum of observations," by the Allied governments on President Wilson's correspondence with the German authorities, disclosing the approval of the President's program, with reservation of freedom of action in the peace conference on the most question of freedom of the seas and a specific statement that by restoration means that Germany must make compensation for all damage done to civilian populations and raiders of the British fleet, are high in praise of the way these American lads are standing up to shrapnel and Bolshevik machine guns.

This last specification, in which the President concurs, means German payment for towns and cities destroyed, and countryside devastated, for ships sunk by submarines and raiders, and in addition makes it possible to mean German payment for damages to the families and dependents of civilians killed or carried off in violation of the rules of war.

Thus much of the real work of a peace conference has been done in advance. The spokesmen of Germany have accepted the President's terms; now they must accept the Allied qualifications if they want to stop the advance of the Allied and American armies. The guarantee that final peace conditions will be dictated under interpretation of principles by the victors without undue argument by the vanquished is provided in the armistice terms.

War Savings Stamp conference in Atlanta this week.

"Millions of dollars were pledged in this way. A large part of these pledges have been redeemed, but a big proportion of the pledges are yet to be taken up. It is imperative that these pledges be redeemed this month, before the Christmas rush starts in."

"In Georgia these pledges amounted to $57,500,000, and the state is far behind. We urge all loyal Americans who signed pledges to look upon them as business and moral obligations, and hasten to fulfill them."

The conference was attended by directors and other war savings officials of six Southern states, who met in the new marble building of the Federal Reserve Bank. Four officials from the Treasury Department attended the meeting.
